

December 30, 2020

As I debated over what to send out to you as we finish out the year and usher in 2021, I decided to share MY thoughts during this tough year.

Every morning, when I get up, I say “Good morning, world, it’s going to be a great day” (sometimes it’s hard to do when it is dark but I still do it)! Then, I give my thanks for living in 2020 and not 1920. Think about 100 years ago...I would be crippled (having not being able to have my two knee replacements and one hip replacement); I would be blind (not being able to have my cataract surgery); the agonizingly slow progress of the medical establishment to develop an anti-covid virus vaccine would still be in the studying phase; and this would be the first year I would be allowed to vote! And, I have discovered friendships are friendships, whether in the same room or thousands of miles apart! So much for which to be thankful!

With those thoughts in mind it makes 2020 palatable and...the good news?

The new year is here which gives us a fresh start in our lives... let's be thankful and grateful for all that we have & quit worrying about what we don't!

Happy New Year!
